Saba : Mondays through Thursdays between 8 am and 12 noon and on Wednesdays between 1 pm and 3 pm by appointment only

St. Eustatius : Mondays through Thursdays between 8 am and 12 noon and on Wednesdays between 1 pm and 3 pm by appointment only

The application must be submitted in writing. There are certain things that you can do yourself to facilitate speedy processing. Fill out the application form completely and attach all relevant information (with supporting documents where necessary). Note: If you cannot answer a question, please provide the reason.

The statutory period within which RCN Unit SZW must decide on an application is five weeks. This period starts once a complete application has been submitted. If the application is incomplete, you will have the opportunity to provide the additional documents and the application within a set period of 2 weeks.

Please note that your application will not be processed if it is incomplete after this period has expired.

If the application has been accepted for processing and it becomes clear that no positive decision on your application can be made, you will have the opportunity to provide additional information or an explanation.

Given the period for vacancy notification (5 weeks) and the period for processing the application (another 5 weeks), you must initiate the procedure with the Public Entity at least 10 weeks before the desired start of the actual employment.

In addition to the assessment of the application for a work permit, the IND will make a decision regarding the application for a residence permit. The IND will decide on this application within two weeks after SZW has decided to issue the work permit.
